Demanding justice for Eva Rhodes

Vigil to call for full investigation into suspicious death of UK citizen in Hungary

On 8 March, International Women's Day at 10:30 a.m., a vigil will be held outside the Hungarian Embassy in London to demand justice in the case of Eva Rhodes, a British citizen who suffered a brutal death under suspicious circumstances, murdered in Hungary in 2008.

Rhodes, 65, an ex-model and animal welfare activist who ran an animal rescue sanctuary in Böny, northwestern Hungary, disappeared in September 2008 and some of her remains were found buried nearby months later, bearing signs she suffered a brutal death. A man who confessed to murdering Rhodes got off lightly where evidence was suppressed after a botched investigation by Hungarian police and a trial that was rife with procedural flaws. Family and friends of Rhodes will present an open letter to Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orbán – who currently holds the EU presidency – calling for a full and impartial criminal investigation into Rhodes' suspicious murder and for those found responsible to be held accountable and punished to the full extent of the law. The case have been taken up by Sir Malcolm Rifkind, the family's MP. We demand that all documents of the investigation and the trial to be handed over to the British authorities without further delay.
